

THE WINDS OF CHANGE

Little Known Secrets of How to Use Divine Design in Everyday Life to Create Your Dream Life Now.

On a Cold Windy Day in October just before Halloween a few years ago I came to the Realization that My System of Manifestation although profound & powerful in Manifesting pretty much all of the Material Items I desired felt hollow and in some areas I seemed to be making no advancement.

For years I had been making amazing incredible progress. At times I, with the right information, would take a quantum leap in my evolution & personal journey to Create My Dream Life.

I seemed to have fallen into a groove where I was catering to the Agenda of My Own Structure and occasionally the “fait a complete” structure of some of those closest to me.

I knew I had to make a decision

I had to take a Stand

Was I in or was I out.

Did I live in Divine Design or was I just an Occasional Tourist.

I had a stark realization that my Ego subtly imposed structure on me that was not supportive of my Divine Design

At times I would give in to some external schedule, obligation or seemingly path of least resistance.

I felt I was courageous in the “Moments of Grand Welling Up” & “Soul Urges”; however I did not get at a deep level that this was a Lifestyle vs. a series of junctures which are the proverbial forks in the road of whether to choose ego or soul that would happen every few days or even few hours.

I was finally starting to get it was a moment by moment, every moment of the day game.

The CUE2 formula was and is very helpful in those times of choice.

It was an easy & simple guide to follow

C - Comfort

U - Upliftment

E - Energizing

E - Enlightening (meaning a strong sense of being shiny or bright)

However the COURAGE to follow that at every juncture (which could be a 100 times a day or more) was slightly unimaginable especially for my “Robby the Bear Ego.”

The other challenge was the thought of “What if Divine Design doesn’t know what it is doing and pushes me into a Life & Lifestyle that is not what I want?”

When you ponder the dilemma it becomes clear that by definition Divine Design is Your Highest & Best A group Soul Dream & Desire that is wildly beyond Your wildest imaginations.

So its got to be better and if now you feel you are in a rut and some of your Dreams feel stuck or unreachable based on what is happening or not happening at the moment then you know the “One Foot in & One Foot Out” thing is not working

As well, when I would lose momentum and see things grinding to a halt with all potentials drying up my Divine Confidence would shrivel and look for a way to jump out the window.

I would ponder “Will the Universe take Care of Me” or worse “Why isn’t the Universe taking care of me.”

Then reason would prevail for I knew better not to obligate responsibility to any other Authority.

That trick Never worked and as well it was revealed to me several times in my life journey that this in fact is a codependent fraud.

However being totally responsible for every conceivable outcome hadn’t worked well for me either for I keep forgetting at times to manifest some of the basic desires I needed to create a foundation for my Dream Life.

So what to do ?

When it came to finances, career & purpose my Ego keep slinking in somehow and creating a subtle yet somehow limiting framework.

I had to break out of that Logical “Do Something Now” Command Shell.

Its really about Being vs. Doing.

The surprisingly profound Microsoft PC commercial chant of Deepak suggesting “I am a Human Being not a Human Being Doing” was the switch point.

I am Queen’s Boulevard is a famous line in the Series Entourage where Director Billy Walsh would become his production.

We must “Be Divine Design”
